

REMARKS

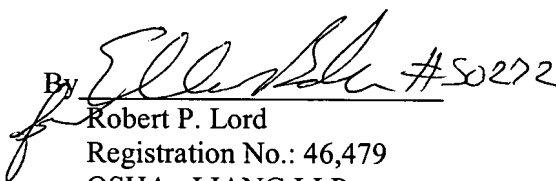

Please consider the application in view of the above amendments and the following remarks. The claim of priority in the specification is amended to include the serial number and the correct docket number for the provisional patent application to which the current application claims benefit under 35 U.S.C. § 119(e). No new subject matter is added by way of the above amendment.

The current filing receipt for the application does not include this proper claim of domestic priority. Applicants respectfully request the Examiner to acknowledge the claim for domestic priority and provide a corrected filing receipt acknowledging the domestic priority. Further, full examination and favorable action are requested.

Applicants believe no fee is due with this amendment. However, if a fee is due, please charge our Deposit Account No. 50-0591 (Reference Number 03226/493002).
